

Quilters Guild of Plano Meeting
December 8, 2022– 7:00 p.m. – Hunter’s Glen Baptist Church and on Zoom

The meeting was called to order at 7:01 p.m. by Donna Petrick, President. Donna asked if there were any comments on the previous minutes and financials; there being none, they were approved as posted. People were invited to help themselves to holiday treats.

Mini Quilts: Valerie Salter showed several minis that were turned in. She had brought a book of minis from the last several years that people might consider for inspiration.

Quilt Show: Carolyn Cosgriff said that we are signing the contract for the show next week. There are still a few positions remaining to be filled on the committee. One needs to be on the committee by February 1st in order to get a free T-shirt. She now has raffle tickets for the J. Michelle Watts quilt. We suggest that members purchase 24 tickets for $20 to keep or sell.

Retreat: Sara Lindsay and Linda Sullivan offered a cute skit to promote the retreat. It will be held at Tanglewood Resort, located an hour north on Lake Texoma. Dates are February 16-19. The retreat lasts 4 days and 3 nights and includes 8 meals. Jeanne Fletcher is taking deposits tonight, and the deadline is December 26th.

Membership: Mary Alice Caffarel introduced two new members, Angela Watts and Kathy Jordan. Sue Foley is a visitor. There were 46 members and 1 guest in live attendance plus 5 on Zoom. Mary Alice said that dues are going up after January 1st to $35, but people can pay the current rate of $30 until that date.

Community Service: All of the tops that have been turned in have been quilted, so there are many needing binding. The committee also has some quilts available for piecing and some pillowcases to be made.

Volunteer Hours: The volunteer “year” is a calendar year, so it’s about time to turn in your volunteer hours to Tisha Harms.

Guild Activities: Michael Davison collected the star blocks and gave each person an equivalent number of blocks from others. He also mentioned that his folded star ornament from two years ago has been viewed over 50,000 times on YouTube.

Program: The January program presenter will be Lilo Bowman discussing organizational techniques.

Door Prizes: Mary Alice indicated that the door prizes were given by Sew Lets Quilt It, Quilt Country, Not Your Mama’s, and Bonnie Cook. The winning tickets belonged to Angela Watts, Sheryl Vaughan, Sara Lindsay, Lisa Pruett, Sue Rentz, and Frances Hafer.

Respectfully submitted,
Sue Rentz, Secretary
