Donna said that we had received a lovely thank you note from Lut DeMuelder and the quilters from North Carolina who were recipients of some of our fabric and patterns left after the June meeting. That group raises money for scholarships with the quilts they make. Donna also said that she had a jacket that was left at the Best Little Retreat Center when we met there in July.

Carolyn Cosgriff, chairperson of the quilt show, asked her committee members to stand. She pointed out that one of the show judges was in attendance along with attendees of our judging seminar, which runs during the show. In addition, she mentioned that we have displays of quilts of members who passed away during the last year, and some of their family was present at our meeting.

During the evening the Mini Quilt auction will be open until 7:20 for people to purchase minis at the Buy it Now price. Also, some vendors are open during the evening. Members will receive members' choice ballots and are encouraged to vote; those votes will be counted on Saturday.

Donna Petrick has served as president two different times, and her second term is coming to an end. Over the years she has contributed many minis and community service quilts, and has taught a number of classes. On behalf of the guild she was presented with a gift certificate to spend on quilting by Richard Larson.

Finally, Carolyn announced that the Best in Show was won by member Linda Neal.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:08 for members to go out and see the beautiful quilts presented in our show.

Respectfully submitted,
Sue Rentz, Secretary
