- Dallas Modern Quilt Guild was visiting and selling raffle tickets for a Featherweight and 2 nights at Houston Quilt Festival.
- We plan to have a Bones table at the April meeting. Bring your unwanted sewing items to pass along

Quilt Show (Laurie Lumston, Carol Truscott)

- A February checklist was posted in the newsletter. Make minis, get raffle tickets and get ready for registration.
- So far we have 35 mini quilts donated. We need approximately 75.
- Registration starts March 1.
- Show t-shirts will be available at the March meeting.
- May will be a quilt show rollout party.

Education (Liz Beaty, Lorrie Gray)

- Barbara Goetz was showing a 150+ year old quilt she is studying as part of the American Quilt Study Group.

Community Service (Debbie Blair and Valerie Schlake)

- 30 finished quilts were turned in tonight. Six bins of quilts were given out for finishing.
- Sew Day is the second Tuesday every month from 10-2.
- Sharing and Caring (replacing the Birthday Quilt) quilts can be turned in for raffle tickets to win a sewing table and goodie basket in December. Quilts should be completely finished, including a label. Details are on the website.
- We are collecting donations for the PISD student parent program. There are quilt kits available to sew and donate. Bring in any baby items that would be useful for a new parent during the March and April meetings.
- 150 quilts have been delivered so far, 100 are ready to deliver and 100 are staged.

Guild Activities and Show and Tell (Chris Fredericks)

- Block 4 for the Riley Blake challenge has been released.
- The pot holder exchange will start next month. You can still sign up.
- The next Challenge is to make a small quilt defining the 60's. These will be due in May.
- During break, each table did a "which quilt block is this" quiz.
- Show and Tell

Programs (Linda Sullivan, Beth Swiatek)

- The April workshops are almost full. There is still time to sign up for those and for June.
