President (Jeanne Vogel)

- April is Volunteer Month and time to start our Nominating Committee headed by Roxy Gross.
- Beth Swiatek talked about how she was already wearing “many hats” but still became a board member and has made many friends.
- There will be a Bones table at the May meeting.
- 3” squares were collected and donated to women in Honduras who make quilts by hand.

Quilt Show (Laurie Lumston, Carol Truscott)

- Laurie talked about volunteering for the quilt show. The volunteer website is available for people to sign up.
- There are postcards, bookmarks, raffle tickets and large posters available for distribution.
- It is time to enter quilts for the show. Entry can be done online. If you’d like assistance, there will be people with laptops at the meeting that can help or you can get help via email.
- We have 46 quilts entered so far and need 300. Members can enter for free until the end of May.
- Mini quilts has received 57 quilts so far and would like to have 20 more.
- Donna Petrick has show pins available for purchase.
- Dolores Williams gave a presentation on volunteer signup. We have 486 positions to fill for show week. Signup can be done on the website and even though you provide contact information when signing up, that information is not publicly available to others. The committee chair will get your information to contact you if needed.

Education (Debbie Burns, Lorrie Gray)

- Debbie had a demonstration on how to use scraps.

Community Service (Debbie Blair and Valerie Schlake)

- Lots of donations came in for the PISD parent program. People can donate all year as the items will get used as rewards and not just for their big events.
- They have cuddle kits, quilts to bind or longarm. Please finish and return any quilts you've picked up.
- We could use some Quilt of Valor quilts.
- Community Sew Day is the second Tuesday every month and kits are provided.
- Roxy Gross sent 60 donated quilts to be given to families in California affected by fire.

Guild Activities and Show and Tell (Chris Fredericks, Anna Marie Larrabee)

- We did a Show and Tell of the Stained Glass quilt challenge. And since someone donated a prize, we voted on which quilt we liked the best. Deanna Tucker won the vote.
- For May, bring 1-2 fat quarters for a raffle.
- Many members are doing the Moda Blockhead challenge.
- Show and Tell
