Quilt Show (Laurie Lumston, Carol Truscott)

- Laurie thanked the QP25 volunteers and entrants.
- We achieved our budget which gets applied to 2027 programs.
- We received many comments from vendors about it being a great show for them.
- The Mini Quilt Auction brought in $4035. Kaye Dunn and Valerie Salter showed 9 quilts that are ready for next year's show.
- Next year the show will be August 14-15. It is the 250th year of America so look for quilts with that theme.
- Laurie has a lost bag from Quilting Tia. If you misplaced your purchase, please contact her.

Education (Debbie Burns, Lorrie Gray)

- There was a demo on making a portable design board.

Community Service (Debbie Blair and Valerie Schlake)

- Many kits available to pickup. See the table.

Guild Activities and Show and Tell (Chris Fredericks, Anna Marie Larrabee)

- Complete the Member Interest Form and turn it in.
- More than 50 people have participated in the "Mission Not Impossible" activity. There are a few kits left.
- Rose Davis has signup forms for the guild retreat at Tanglewood Resort February 26-March 1. The form will be available on our website.
- Show and Tell - there was a show and tell display of Mission Not Impossible quilts followed by Show and Tell for other projects.

Programs (Linda Sullivan, Beth Swiatek)
